THE SALVATION ARMY.

Switzerland is supposed to be an ex ample of freedom, and has posed as the champion of freedom for centuries.

However, it seems that religious per secution is not wrong in the eyes of these exponents of freedom, and the members of the Salvation Army have been sadly abused. The men and wo men of the army have been beaten and stoned and no protection has been ex tended to them by the police.

This seems strange in the face o Swiss history. It seems even more strange when the real mission of the Salvation Army is considered.

This organization has in its work reached an element that no other religious body has been able to deal with. The Salvation Army has literally raised the fallen and fed the hungry. However peculiar their methods they have enabled the soldiers of the army to enter the haunts of the submerged tenth, to come in saving and succoring contact with those poor wretches, who through some hideous wrong in our code of civilization have been always WILLIAM J. KILPATRICK outside the pale of decent social relationship.

This wonderful work is now fully acknowledged, and prelates and ministers of denominations whose splendor is undoubted have been proud to stand on the same platform with the men and women who have literally obeyed the law of the great teacher in caring with a sacrificing care for the hungry, the sick and the fallen.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

The United States court at Tucson was, this time at least, an example of inexorable justice.

There have been complaints made that the escape of the criminal was almost assured and that he need have no fear for his liberty.

This, which has been more than a mere theory up to now, has not been the case

Out of twenty-eight criminal cases twenty-seven convictions have been secured and punishment meted out.

In addition to this, the judge has seen to it that the mandates of the conrt have been obeyed. Several gentlemen who failed to put in an appearance in answer to subposuas were sent for, F. A. SWEET, M. D. brought to court and fined.

The prosecuting attorney fought hard for conviction throughout every case. and succeeded well enough to rid the country for a while of several undesir able citizens.

Some persons amuse themselves by tearing the cards and posters put up by the various candidates around town. In many cases these election cards are ripped off by these people, whoever they are. This should at once be put a stop to. These candidates' notices are expensive and are put up with a purpose, and cannot be destroyed with impunity. The authorities should take the matter up.

Notice.

My wife, Maggie Igo, deserted m bed and home and little children, with out any cause, and went to Bisbee 14 start a boarding house. I hereby warm all persons doing business with the said Maggie Igo that I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by her.
